

CODE OF SPORTSMANSHIP AND BEHAVIOR

It is understood that good sportsmanship and good behavior is expected by all players, coaches and parents during the course of Middle School soccer games.

All players, coaches, and parents of players, by their signature hereto, agree that they will engage only in good behavior and sportsmanship before, during and after each game.

All parties, by their signature hereto, agree that it will be unacceptable for the above-listed individuals to engage in any verbal or physical behavior directed toward referees, coaches, opposing players, players on their own team, opposing coaches and opposing spectators.

It should be remembered and understood by all that this League exists as a means to allow players to represent their Middle School. As a result, all of the above should conduct themselves with class and dignity as would be expected of them as representatives of their school.

It is expressly understood and agreed that, in order to participate in this League, a copy of each player's agreement, also signed by his/her parents and coach, must be furnished to the League Commissioner.

It is furthermore understood and agreed that, if any incidents of behavior that could be construed by the league Commissioner to violate this Code in his/her sole discretion, the Commissioner has the right to expel any player, any coach, any parent and even an entire team from further participation during the course of the season in the Middle School League.
